

I am an Indiana consumer who continually had my peaceful evening hours interrupted until the Indiana Law restricting advertising call was passed and implemented. I am opposed to my Band Fifth National Corp. or any similar institution weakening the State Law and interrupting my peace and quiet. Those institutions have many other more acceptable means of contacting me. They simply don't need this avenue.